- 27 If a membership subscription payable by any member remains outstanding more than eight weeks after the date on which it fell due (and providing they have been given at least one written reminder) the directors may, by resolution to that effect, expel them from membership; for the avoidance of doubt, it will be open to an individual expelled from membership under this article to reapply for membership if they so wish.

- 45 In addition to the matters expressly referred to elsewhere in these articles, the provisions of the Act allow the company, by special resolution,

 - (b) to alter any provision of these articles or adopt new articles of association.
- 46 For the purposes of these articles, an “ordinary resolution” means a resolution passed by majority vote (taking account only of those votes cast in favour as compared with those votes against), at a general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting has been given in accordance with articles 39 to 43.

Procedure at general meetings

- 48 The directors may make arrangements, in advance of any members’ meeting, to allow members to participate in the members’ meeting by means of a conference telephone, video conferencing facility or similar communications equipment - so long as all those participating in the meeting can hear each other; a member participating in a members’ meeting in this manner shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

- 50 The chair of the company shall (if present (see article 48) and willing to act as chairperson) preside as chairperson of each general meeting; if the chair is not present and willing to act as chairperson within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to commence, the directors present at the meeting shall elect from among themselves the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.
- 51 The chairperson of a general meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting to such date, time and place as the chairperson may determine.
- 52 Every member shall have one vote, which (whether on a show of hands or on a secret ballot) may be given either personally or by proxy.
- 53 Any member who wishes to appoint a proxy to vote on their behalf at any meeting (or adjourned meeting):

- (b) shall send by electronic means to the company, at such electronic address as may have been notified to the members by the company for that purpose, an instrument of proxy (in such form as the directors require); providing (in either case), the instrument of proxy is received by the company at the relevant address not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting (or, as the case may be, adjourned meeting).

- 54 An instrument of proxy which does not conform with the provisions of article 53, or which is not lodged or sent in accordance with such provisions, shall be invalid.
- 55 A member shall not be entitled to appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion.

- 57 A vote given, or ballot demanded, by proxy shall be valid notwithstanding that the authority of the person voting or demanding a ballot had terminated prior to the giving of such vote or demanding of such ballot, unless notice of such termination was received by the company at the company's registered office (or, where sent by electronic means, was received by the company at the address notified by the company to the members for the purpose of electronic communications) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote was given or the ballot demanded.
- 58 If there are an equal number of votes for and against any resolution proposed at a general meeting, the chairperson of the meeting shall not be entitled to a casting vote.
- 59 A resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a secret ballot is demanded by the chairperson (or by at least two persons present in person at the meeting and entitled to vote (whether as members or proxies for members)); a secret ballot may be demanded either before the show of hands takes place, or immediately after the result of the show of hands is declared.
- 60 If a secret ballot is demanded, it shall be taken at the meeting and shall be conducted in such manner as the chairperson may direct; the result of the ballot shall be declared at the meeting at which the ballot was demanded.

 - (i) they are removed from office by resolution of the directors on the grounds that they are considered to have been in serious or persistent breach of their duties under sub-sections 66(1) or (2) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; or

- (j) they are removed from office by ordinary resolution (special notice having been given) in pursuance of section 168 of the Act.

73 A resolution under paragraph (h) or (i) of article 72 shall be valid only if:

- b) the director concerned is given the opportunity to address the meeting of directors at which the resolution is proposed, prior to the resolution being put to the vote; and

75 The directors shall elect from among themselves a chair and a treasurer, and such other office bearers (if any) as they consider appropriate.

76 All of the office bearers shall cease to hold office at the conclusion of each annual general meeting, but shall then be eligible for re-election.

77 A person elected to any office shall cease to hold that office if they cease to be a director, or if they resign from that office by written notice to that effect.

Powers of directors

78 Subject to the provisions of the Act and these articles, and subject to any directions given by special resolution, the company and its assets and undertaking shall be managed by the directors, who may exercise all the powers of the company.

Personal interests

80 A director who has a personal interest in any transaction or other arrangement which the company is proposing to enter into, must declare that interest at a meeting of the directors; they will be debarred (in terms of article 97) from voting on the question of whether or not the company should enter into that arrangement.

82 Provided

- (a) they have declared their interest;
- (b) they have not voted on the question of whether or not the company should enter into the relevant arrangement; and
- (c) the requirements of article 86 are complied with, a director will not be debarred from entering into an arrangement with the company in which they have a personal interest (or is deemed to have a personal interest under article 81) and may retain any personal benefit which they gain from their participation in that arrangement.

83 The directors shall be entitled, for the purposes of section 175 of the Act, to authorise (by way of resolution to that effect) any conflict situation (as defined for the purposes of that section of the Act) that may arise (such that the duty of the director concerned, under that section, to avoid conflicts of interest is not infringed) and to amend or vary any such authorisation; the directors may give such authorisation subject to such terms and conditions as they may consider appropriate and reasonable in the circumstances.

84 For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of section 175 of the Act and article 83 do not apply to a conflict of interest relating to a transaction or arrangement with the company; conflicts of that kind are regulated by the provisions of articles 80 to 82 and articles 97 to 100.

85 No director may serve as an employee (full time or part time) of the company, and no director may be given any remuneration by the company for carrying out their duties as a director.

86 Where a director provides services to the company or might benefit from any remuneration paid to a connected party for such services, then

- (a) the maximum amount of the remuneration must be specified in a written agreement and must be reasonable
- (b) the directors must be satisfied that it would be in the interests of the company to enter into the arrangement (taking account of that maximum amount); and
- (c) less than half of the directors must be receiving remuneration from the company (or benefit from remuneration of that nature).

87 The directors may be paid all travelling and other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of the directors, general meetings, or meetings of committees, or otherwise in connection with the carrying-out of their duties.

- 95 Unless they are unwilling to do so, the chair of the company shall preside as chairperson at every directors' meeting at which they are present (see article 90); if the chair is unwilling to act as chairperson or is not present within 15 minutes after the time when the meeting was due to commence, the directors present shall elect from among themselves the person who will act as chairperson of the meeting.

- 97 A director shall not vote at a directors' meeting (or at a meeting of a sub-committee) on any resolution concerning a matter in which they have a personal interest which conflicts (or may conflict) with the interests of the company; they must withdraw from the meeting while an item of that nature is being dealt with.

- 103 For the avoidance of doubt, the code of conduct shall be supplemental to the provisions relating to the conduct of directors contained in these articles of association; and the relevant provisions of these articles shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with the provisions of the code of conduct in force from time to time.

- 104 The directors may delegate any of their powers to any sub-committee consisting of one or more directors and such other persons (if any) as the directors may determine; they may also delegate to the chair of the company (or the holder of any other post) such of their powers as they may consider appropriate.
